1.

2. On 24 September 1949 the Argentine government executed its decree of July 1949 calling for the internment of various Bolivian MNR exiles who had entered Argentina following the May 1949 revolt against the Bolivian government. Of the 16 MNR exiles named in the decree, the following were interned:

- a. German Monroy Block to Mendoza
- b. Julio Zuazo Cuenca to Mendoza
- c. Alfonso Gumucio to Parana
- d. Raul Zumaran to Parana
- e. Col. Armando Fortun to Parana
- f. Armando Frudencio to Neuquen
- g. Hernan Boland to Neuquen
- h. Armando Arce to Neuquen
- i. Major Gustavo Maldonado to Rosario

3. Carlos Montenegro, who was to have gone to Parana, was released by the Argentine Federal Police and permitted to return to his residence in Buenos Aires. The police were apparently unable to locate the following who were also named in the decree:

- a. Gustavo Chacon
- b. German Quiroga Galdo
- c. Francisco Nealla
- d. Octavio Rivadenella
- e. Emilio Alem
